South of Fifth Miami Beach's Condominium Sales

The south of 5th condominium market ended the first quarter of 2020 with an overall drop in closings and sales price. The average sales price of $1,182,623 and a median sales price of $644,950 experienced declines from last year's quarter of 14.4% and 13.4%, respectively. The quarter ended with a total of 44 closings. Although this is the lowest number of sales and lowest average sales price for Q1 in the past 4 years, the number of sales is not the lowest this market has seen. From January to March, the average price per square foot increased by $155 while the number of closings doubled.

Days on Market (marketing time) fell by 10.0% as the number of active units fell slightly by 6.0%. By a 9.1% difference, two bedroom units held the highest sale share compared to one bedroom units.

The effects of Covid-19 on real estate transactions are yet to be determined, preliminary results suggest minimal changes during the month of March. Greater impacts are expected in Q2 2020.

Miami Beach Miami Beach's Condominium Sales

5th St. to W. 63rd St.

The Miami Beach condominium market began the year with an overall decrease in number of closings and sales price. This quarter ended with an average sales price of $449,770 (down 22.1%) and a median sales price of $307,000 (down 6.8%) from last year's quarter, Q1 2019. There was a total of 239 closings for Q1 2020 and marks the lowest number of closings in the past 4 years.

The average list price discount (price reductions) continues to bounce between 10% and 12% average list price discount while Days on Market (marketing time) continues to grow. From January to March, the average sales price per square foot increased by $59 while the number of closings grew by 24 closings. Given that the penthouse sales encompassed studio and 1 bedroom units, the median sales price is lower than other bedrooms for this quarter.

The effects of Covid-19 on real estate transactions are yet to be determined, preliminary results suggest minimal changes during the month of March. Greater impacts are expected in Q2 2020.

Greater Miami

Downtown Miami Greater Miami Condominium Sales

MacArthur Causeway (395) to the Miami River and NW 1st Ave. to 5th St. to Interstate 95

The Downtown Miami condominium market closed the first quarter of 2020 with mixed price trends. While the average sales price at $408,817 is down by 7.4%, the median sale prices at $370,000 is up by 15.6% from the prior years' quarter. Although the median sales price is on the rise, there was a drop in the number of closings with a total of 90 closings to end the quarter - which marks the lowest number of sales in the past 2 years. From January to March, the average price per square foot decreased by $34 and the average sales price increased by $267,685.

Listing discount (price reductions) continues to fluctuate as Days on Market (marketing time) remains at an incline. The number of active listing inventory and new listing listed within this quarter both decreased. With a larger decrease in active listing inventory than the number of closings, the absorption period fell by 0.6% from last years' quarter.

The effects of Covid-19 on real estate transactions are yet to be determined, preliminary results suggest minimal changes during the month of March. Greater impacts are expected in Q2 2020.

Brickell Greater Miami Condominium Sales

The Miami River to Interstate 95 to the Rickenbacker Causeway.

For the first quarter of 2020, the Brickell condominium market presented an increase in overall sales price, with an average sales price of $518,865 (up 2.4%) and a median sales price of $377,000 (up 4.7%). There was a total of 213 closings to end the quarter, up 4.4% from the prior years' quarter and down 16.5% from last quarter, Q4 2019. From January to March, the number of closings, average sales price and price per SQFT grew.

Listing discount, or price reductions, fell to a 9% average list price discount while Days on Market exhibits an inclining trend. Due to a drop in active listing inventory and a slight increase in sales, the absorption period dropped to 26 months of inventory.

The effects of Covid-19 on real estate transactions are yet to be determined, preliminary results suggest minimal changes during the month of March. Greater impacts are expected in Q2 2020.

Overall sales price increased as the number of closings followed.

Listing discount continues to fluctuate.

Due to a drop in active inventory and an increase in sales, the absorption period dropped from both quarters.

3 and 4 bedroom homes hold the highest sales share at 38.3%.
